My Heart pounds YWAM

It's that time again! YWAM time is newsletter time :) I want to try to keep you up to date with everything that is happening over here. I am excited for your feedback! Text me about the stuff that you are interested in and about what I should report more ;) (or maybe less? ;D)

What is she now up to...?

Already last year during BCC (Bible Core Course) with YWAM Lausanne it was clear, that after finishing my work contract with my event management agency in Rottweil, Germany, I would come back to Lausanne. The Hospitality and Event Management Seminar, that I am attending right now, is another step into my calling. By doing events I want to create platforms where God is given the glory and his purposes are fulfilled.

Prior to the Event Management Seminar a two weeks Hospitality Seminar took place. Hospitality is one of the main values of YWAM. YWAM affirms the ministry of hospitality as an expression of God's character and the value of people. We believe it is the value of people. We believe it is important to open our hearts, homes and campuses to serve and honor one another, our guests and the poor and needy, not as acts of social protocol, but as expressions of generosity. The Lord is wanting to send out a new and fresh wave of hospitality through out the globe - whether that be the local church, your home or ministry location.

The theme of the seminar was Romans 15:32 ".I may come to you with joy and be refreshed in your company". We dealt with topics like the heart of hospitality, biblical and intercultural aspects, effective communication between host and guest and hospitality within events. We also had some really practical exercises such as writing calligraphy, making flower arrangements and decorating tables.

The topic "heart of hospitality" challenged me personally a lot. So far I was mostly involved with hospitality within work and the guest was usually the client or potential client. I realized that I approach many things with an attitude of an economical exchange. But the heart of hospitality is a heart of generosity, that does not expect a compensation. My personal aim is it therefore to transition from a economical attitude to an attitude of generosity.

The Hospitality Seminar was finished with the organization and execution of the graduation of the DTS (Discipleship Training School), the so called "Love Feast". This included the ceremony (worship, performances and testimonies, a word of the base leader and handing out the certificates) such as the following banquet. The Love Feast took place under the topic "chosen". With the Love Feast we also received our certificates.

I am super thankful to be again a part of YWAM and to learn more about myself, God and the life of an event manager.

I am excited for all your prayer support!

If you want to know more, just send me an email or browse through my brand new homepage ;) .. which is far away from perfect by the way - improvement suggestions are always welcome :P

Blessings from Lausanne,
Maïke
